Argentina - Communist China: Reports of large Argentine grain sales to Communist China have been confirmed.

25X1

[redacted] contracts for a total of 450,000 metric tons of wheat to be delivered over the next several months. Part of the grain needed to fulfill the contracts is available, but the remainder must await approval of the grain board.

[redacted] the Chinese have also agreed to purchase some 1.5 million metric tons of wheat, corn, and sorghum within two years but did not specify the exact quantities of each. In both cases, Peiping apparently has promised small premiums over world prices.

These agreements would bring minimum Western commitments of grain to China during the next two and one half years to about six million metric tons.
